VOLUME CVII.--NO. 126. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the little book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful, habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English.

Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Conditions in Russia.

Professor Milukoff, the spokesman of the Russian constitutional democrats, according to an article published by him in the St. Petersburg Rech yesterday, is rather despondent over the prospect of staying the tide of revolution in the country.

He bases his pessimism upon the conviction that the government will not yield a full constitutional regime, with which he says it is still possible to calm the passions of the people. He regards Premier Goremykin and his cabinet as mere puppets, doing the bidding of the powerful influence at court, and believes that Emperor Nicholas is destined to throw away the opportunity, as Louis XVI. did, of transferring the country to a peaceful, parliamentary regime. This the professor considers to be the government's last chance, and that a refusal to do so will cut the ground from under the constitutional democrats and strengthen the revolutionary elements, which are preaching that parliamentalism in illusion, and make anarchy and a bloody revolution inevitable. Nevertheless, the constitutional democrats will persevere in their attempt to place the country on a solid, constitutional basis, and if they fail and disaster follows the responsibility will not be upon their shoulders.

The central committee of the constitutional democrats has completed the drafts of the laws to be introduced in parliament, including universal suffrage, irrespective of sex, and equal rights for all citizens; laws guaranteeing immunity of the person and inviolability of domicile without due process of law, providing also the guarantee of habeas corpus, and specifically excluding all exceptions.

While no party at court favors a complete surrender to the demands of the lower house of parliament, the Trepoff cabal, which secretly favors a dissolution of parliament, is not strong enough for the moment to seriously urge such a course. The Emperor continues well disposed, and is supported not only by many nobles at the court, but by other big landed proprietors throughout the country, who now seem fully convinced that unless the peasants can be measurably satisfied by a compromise on the land question, a revolt of the peasants against the nobles will be aroused which will ruin the latter, as the peasants will forcibly seize their property to the accompaniment of horrors and excesses.

The provincial papers are filled with advertisements offering estates for sale, inserted by property owners who, despairing of saving their property, are ready to accept what they can get and flee from the country.

Angered by the delayed settlement of the agrarian problem, the peasants on twenty-seven estates in the province of Kherson have joined a general strike, hoping by refusing to engage in spring work to precipitate an immediate division of land. The movement is spreading to other provinces, and a renewal of agrarian disorders is declared.

The constitutional democrats will introduced in the lower house in Parliament to-day a sweeping bill establishing complete freedom of religion and conscience, and tolerance of all creeds.

Owing to the delay in formulating the final programme of the government, Premier Goremykin may not to be able to deliver the expected address at the opening of Parliament at 2 o'clock today. Though there have been various forecasts of the address published, it will not be definitely decided upon until today, when M. Goremykin will have an audiance with Emperor Nicholas at Peterhof.

The government seems to be hesitating about executing the resolution taken a week ago to grant partial amnesty. The official statement issued last night justifying the government in not granting plenary amnesty seems designed to pave the way for a refusal, on the ground that in the present circumstances the release of the political prisoners deserving freedom can be left to the local authorities.

Nothing could be more irritating to the liberals than for the Emperor to delegate the discretion of granting pardon to the very men responsible for the wholesale arrests which occurred during the winter, and such a decision is sure to arouse a storm in the lower house and increase the danger of a conflict.

The Twentieth Century, formerly the Russ, prints in parallel columns the text of identical telegrams sent to the Emperor from widely different places, protesting against the demand of the lower house for amnesty, proving them to have been inspired from a common source.

Officers of the guard regiments in St. Petersburg, at a meeting just held, openly advocated the dispersal of Parliament.

The impression is growing that if a peaceful issue is to be possible the Goremykin cabinet must give way to another ministry without previous bureaucratic connections.

It is reported that Count Witte has determined to go abroad next week for two months.

Coming Royal Marriage.

Madrid is fast assuming an aspect of feverish expectancy as the day for the royal nuptials approaches. King Alfonso's departure for the frontier yesterday to meet his bride-to-be was the first event of the elaborate official programme.

The King yesterday morning drove to the railroad station in an open coach seated beside the queen mother and surrounded by a retinue of court chamberlains. He wore the blue uniform of a field marshal, with a broad, red sash and white military cap topped by a waving plume. He smiled amiably as he saluted his enthusiastic subjects. The royal train was sumptuously appointed. The car in which Princess Ena will be received was strewn with white roses, lilies and chysanthemums. A large number of ministers and a glittering array of military officers accompanied the royal party to the frontier. Prior to his departure King Alfonso inspected the arrangements at the Church of San Jeronimo and expressed himself as highly pleased. The interior is richly decorated with tapestries embroidered with gold and carpeted with crimson velvet, edged with gold. Twenty-five hundred electric lights have been installed amid the forest of candelabra in order to give a dazzling brightness to the appointments. Cardinal Sancho, Archbishop of Toledo, has been officially designated to perform the marriage. The choir will consist of 200 singers.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back right in shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

TO OUR DEPOSITORS is one of the strong features in favor of this corporation, for where there is liberality there is conservatism and safety, for in being liberal with our patrons we are not only extending our business but also doing something which contributes to the general prosperity of our city. Since the day this institution first opened its doors for business and invited, encouraged and assisted the people of all ages and conditions in life to form correct habits of economy, and save some portion of their earnings, its success has been unexcelled by any banking institution in northern Virginia. We attribute our success largely to the fact that we have shared with our depositors OUR PROFITS by allowing them 3 PER CENT. interest in our Savings Department. The daily deposits of the executor, administrator, curator, assignee, receiver, trustee under decree or will, or order of court receive interest on their monthly balances. Liberal interest allowed on money deposited pending investment, and on certificates of deposits, and all other special accounts. This corporation has unsurpassed facilities for handling the accounts of banks, corporations and individuals, and solicits the same.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1906.

THE ACTION of the Phillips-Andover Academy faculty in Andover, Mass., in expelling fifteen students who were concerned in the ducking of Manager John M. Stewart, of the Philips Inn, in Rabbit Pond, Friday night is generally commended. The faculty is said to have in contemplation the expulsion of four or five more One of the youth expelled is a grandson of Admiral Dewey. Some of the more outspoken students are threatening vengeance and say that there will be more "rough house" before the affair is over; others threaten to leave the academy. The latter should be compelled to fall in line with those who have already been expelled. The conduct of many students at institutions of learning has brought no little odium upon the latter. The recent scenes at the naval Academy showed what was at one time permitted in that place It is no uncommon thing for quiet people to unfortunately board trains or steamboats on which parties of students are traveling. While not always rioters their boisterous conduct proves annoying to all the other passengers who rejoice when they see them disembark. It is high time for he principals of colleges to impress upon pupils salutary lessons of good behavior and campel them to realize that others have rights they are bound to respect.

NON-UNION drivers in New York are still causing trouble. The principal storm centre Wednesday was at the stables of Levy Greenberg, on Division street. A committee of the strikers came along and attempted to cut the traces from a team attached to a waiting hearse, when Mrs. Greenberg came out and asked what was wrong. As the report of her prowess had gone forth through the East side, the strikers began to fall back. A rush was then made to the hearse, when Mrs. Greenberg seized a bale stick and laid about her right and left, causing the strikers to scatter like chaff before the wind. Some of them were hard hit before they got away. This ended the trouble at the Greenberg stables. It has been considered necessary recently to have the crippled children of the East Side guarded on their way to and from school, because the coach owner who supplies the carryall conveying the children is under the ban of the striking drivers. The superintendent had the carryall followed by a mounted bluecoat. Such scenes as those described above are to be deplored. The times are perilous when funerals are attacked and when it is necessary to guard crippled children to and from school.

NEW YORK has now no direct tax for the support of the State. The revenues of the State are derived entirely from the liquor tax, corporation and inheritance taxes and taxes on transfers of stock. But the increase of taxation goes on. Direct taxation is not reduced, and the indirect taxation for the State is simply so much additional money collected from the community. With the substitution of indirect for direct taxes the State's revenue has increased and at the same time the citizen's interest in economy has been eliminated because he cares very little what is done with the money that does not come obviously out of his pocket. As most of the State revenue comes from the city of New York, the rural voter has even less interest than the urban voter in public economy. The merit of indirect taxation, says the Philadelphia Record, is that it meets the ideal conditions enumerated by a French financier of a previous century—getting the largest amount of feathers from the goose with the least amount of squawking.

THE GAG is to be applied to the House of Represeutatives in order to send the rate bill to conference and enable the House and Senate leaders to carry out their bidden and suspicious plans. Whatever treachery is contemplated is in a fair way of consummating. For having failed to win over the democrats to an agreement which would commit the bill to an uninstructed conference committee, Speaker Cannon and Chairman Hepburn, of the committee on interstate commerce, have decided that a rule must be adopted and the House prevented from any expression of its sentiment regarding the Senate amendments. The plotters are relying upon the abject docility of the republican majority to put the rule through. It is not yet apparent that there can be reason for doubting the success of the scheme. And this is the House of representative legislators!

THE TRIAL of Josephine Terranova in New York for killing her uncle and aunt has attracted considerable attention, not only in New York but in many other parts of the country. Her treatment by cruel relatives who should have exerted a moral influence over her young life is almost unparalleled in the history of crime. The manner in which the girl avenged herself upon those who were responsible for all her trouble may be a warning to others, showing, as it does, the possibility of the weakest victims avenging themselves. The unfortunate girl, still in her teens, degraded and cast out by her young husband, was, she claims, haunted by a voice which whispered "Kill the authors of your trouble," and she obeyed them. Some believe she was the weapon in the hands of a great avenger.

AT A meeting in Trenton N. J., yesterday of the heads of the correctional and charitable institutions of New Jersey, one of the speakers declared that insanity in New Jersey is rapidly increasing and said that the excessive drinking of liquor was the main cause for this degeneracy. "Jersey lightning," he said, seemed to have a disastrous effect on Jersey people, especially in the southern section of the State, where the increase in insanity was particularly noticeable. It has for some time been the belief of many people that the higher classes of foreign wines and brandies have a tenderency to derange those who use them habitually, and now it seems that some home products have similar properties.

IN THE House yesterday Mr. Towne, of New York, in debate on the diplomatic bill, attacked the republican party as inconsistent on the money question; charged Mr. Landis with dense ignorance thereanent, and assailed President Roosevelt as being out of tune with his party, quoting an early statement of the President that protection is vicious. But inconsistency is one of the cardinal principles of the republican party.

From Washington.

Washington, May 25.

Samuel L. Gracey, American Consul at Fuchau, China, one of the centers of recent local disturbance in the Yangtee valley, is in Washington on leave, and for several days has paid calls at the State Department and given officials there the benefit of his intimate acquaintance with the internal situation in the Empire. At the time of his departure from China, about the middle of March the last marked outburst of anti-foreign feeling was just subsiding. Mr. Gracey believes that there is no danger at present of a popular uprising like the Boxer movement of 1900, but thinks that race troubles in the near future in China will be confined to disturbances entirely due to local causes. The movement of troops to the Philippines was widely know in China and caused beneficial apprehension. Boycott sentiment still exists, particularly in the southern coast cities. The offensive features of the campaign, however, have been eliminated, through the vigilance of Chinese officials, chiefly in the line of outrageous posters. Some of these depicted Chinamen in America being hurled from windows, pursued by mobs through the streets, being lynched and having their heads chopped off in public. The ignorant classes fully believed their fellow countrymen were so treated in America and were naturally moved to violent resentment against Americans in China. The causes of local troubles are frequently founded in the ignorance of foreigners. An American touring up the Yangtse on a houseboat took a snapshot photograph of a village elder one day and passed on. Two days later the aged villager died. The entire village awaited the return of the houseboat voyager intent on vengeance for the supposed witchcraft exercised to cause the old man's death. Only a timely warning prevented the Americans being ambushed and killed.

Representative Williams, of Mississippi, the democratic floor leader, carried filibustering in the House today to the extent of demanding a roll call on the approval of yesterday's journal. The conferees on the part of the House will be Representatives Hepburn, of Iowa and Mann of Illinois, republicans and Richardson, of Alabama, democrat. The Senate conferes will be Senators Elkins, West Virginia; Cullom, Illinois, and Willman, South Carolina. There is some talk also of Aldrich, of Rhode Island.

Fort de France, Martinique, is infested night and day with a frenzied mob carrying on savage carousals. A shackled white lamb is displayed, emblematic of the dominance of the colored party. Whites are jostled on the street and insults offered. Their expulsion, suggested by political leaders, is now urged by the mob. Authority winks at the political condition in Martinique, which is a greater menace than the volcano, earthquakes or hurricanes.

The steamer Tencer, which arrived at Victoria, B. C., Wednesday, from Japan and China, brought further advices regarding the disastrous floods of the Hai Nang Hao in China. It cost the United States government about $23,000 to get the big dry dock Dewey through the Suez Canal on its way to the Philippines. The canal tolls, towage and harbor dues 100,616 francs, and in addition about 15,000 francs damage was done by the Dewey bumping into buoys and beacons, displacing or smashing them. The damage done in passing the canal was much less than anticipated. The big drydock blocked traffic in the canal all one night owing to strong winds, which made it necessary for the dock to rest against the lee bank.

Charged With Murder.

Ernest Denicke, son of E. A. Denicke, a wealthy San Francisco banker and capitalist, was arrested in that city yesterday on a charge of manslaughter. Denicke was released later under $5,000 bonds. On April 20, it is said, Denicke, wearing the uniform of a lieutenant of the United States army, shot and killed an unidentified man on the Lombard street wharf. Denicke is a mining engineer, who had seen military service in the Philippines On the night of the earthquake he donned his old uniform and volunteered his services to the colonel of the Twenty-second United States Infantry. His tender was accepted, and he was detailed to service on the water front. A number of chickens had escaped from a coop on the Lombard street wharf, and refugees scrambled for the fowls. One, evidently a middle aged Italian or Mexican, was accosted by a marine, who is said to have been intoxicated, and was stabbed with a bayonet. The refugee wrested the gun from the marine, when an army officer rushed up, and, according to stories told to the police by eyewitnesses, deliberately shot the man three times while he pleaded for mercy. The man did not die immediately, but it is alleged, was allowed to lie on the wharf until 11 o'clock that night. It was then discovered that the man was dead, and his body was weighted and thrown into the bay, it is said. No report of the death was made either to the coroner or to military headquarters, it is alleged.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 25.

SENATE.

Because of the absence of Senators Depew, Bailey, Frazier, Hopkins and Dolliver, action was taken today in the committee on privileges and elections in the Reed Smoot case. The matter went over until next Friday when it is expected that a vote will be had on the resolution offered by Senator Dubois declaring that Smoot is not entitled to his seat in the Senate. It is believed that the final determination of this case will be postponed until next session.

The Senate this morning made the sea level canal bill the unfinished business and laid it aside temporarily.

HOUSE.

Representative Dalzell presented the rule after the roll call had been completed. He at once demanded the previous question on it, and another aye and nay vote was ordered.

The motion for the previous question was sustained, 152 to 88, and the rule was then debated 20 minutes to each side.

A sensational incident aroused the House this afternoon during the debate on the rule to send the railroad rate bill to conference. The lie was passed between Representatives Cooper, of Wisconsin, and Hepburn, of Iowa, republicans.

Representative Cooper had voted against the previous question on the rule. He had asked Representative Dalzell what earthly objection there could be allowing a separate vote on the express company amendment.

Mr. Dalzell replied that there are 53 amendments and all must be treated alike that there would be no difficulty about the express company amendment anyhow.

"I have been informed," said Mr. Cooper, that men who will be on the conference committee have declared that the express company amendment will go out"

"Who said that?" Mr. Hepburn demanded.

Mr. Cooper hesitated. "I shall not give their names," he replied, "but I will say that it was the gentleman from Iowa who is said to have made the statement that the amendment will go out." The answer caused a stirr of excitement in the House. Any man who said that told a falsehood," was Hepburn's warm reply. "And if the gentlemen refuses to give the names of his informant I must believe that he is drawing on his imagination."

For these words he was called to order and he retracted them. But Cooper was not satisfied and in a voice trembling with anger retorted that this was the first time he had ever been accused of falsehood." I am not the only one to whom the statement was made," he said. "It was made to others as well. I have told the exact truth as it was told to me."

Mr. Hepburn tried to interrupt him, but Mr. Cooper waived him indignantly aside.

The House today sent all the amendments to the railroad rate bill to a conference on the rule with the Senate. The vote providing for this step was 144 to 105.

Berkman and Emma Goldman.

Miss Emma Goldman, America's most famous woman anarchist, is married, and the bridegroom is Alexander Berkman, the noted "red," who has just been released from the Allegheny (Pa.) penitentiary after serving a term of fourteen years for his attempt to assassinate Henry C. Frick, the steel millionaire, during the Homestead strike. When Berkman was released from prison he went at once to Detroit. Miss Goldman had preceded him to Detroit, arriving the day previous. She met him at the depot on his arrival, and the greeting was an affectionate one, the pair kissing several times. As the idea of the marriage by forms of law is repugnant to all anarchists, these two leaders of the brotherhood called neither judge nor minister to read a service, but were united according to the peculiar tenets of their belief at the home of Carl Nold, an anarchist friend, who himself served five years in prison for complicity in the plot to assassinate Frick. They left Detroit for Chicago. They will go from there to St. Louis, and then return together to New York to make that city their home.

Today's Telegraphic News

Affairs in Russia.

St. Peteraburg, May 25.—The statement was made today on what can be considered good authority that the labor group in the Douma, composed of peasants and workingmen, intends to demand the dismissal of the present government if the answer to the address of the Douma is not satisfactory.

A number of members of the State Council attended the session of the Douma today, as it was expected that Premier Goremykin would address the lower house giving the government's reply to the address of the Douma.

One Deputy has resigned his seat in the Douma, as he is disappointed over the prospects of the Douma being able to accomplish any good.

Eruption of a Well.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 25.—An eruption of a well in the business district of Angelica, near here, yesterday, is pronounced an unusual phenomenon. The well was first noticed to be convulsive. Then a stream of water and flames shot upward and rose high above the business houses. There were several explosions at the bottom of the well. All the villagers turned out to witness the spectacle. Soon after the eruption of Mount Pelee this well gave its first exhibition of this kind. At that time a live object, half fish and half animal, was thrown out. Its color was a bright green. As soon as it was exposed to atmospheric influence it began to decompose and disappeared before it could be placed in a preservative fluid.

Lower Court Reversed.

New York, May 25.—George W. Perkins of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., intended no crime and committed no crime when he contributed the money of the policy holders of the New York Life Insurance Co., to the republican campaign funds. This was the decision of the Appellate divisions of the Supreme Court which considered the case as brought up to it when Justice Greenbaum held Mr. Perkins for his act. Justice Greenbaum is reversed and Mr. Perkins was discharged from custody. Perkins was charged with grand larceny in the first degree because of the payment of nearly $50,000, to the republican national committee in 1904. Each one of the judges of the court wrote separare opinions, but their tenor is that there was no intent to commit a crime and therefore no crime had been committed. The decision is regarded as a victory for District Attorney Jerome.

Skating Fall Restores Voice.

Asheville, N. C., May 25.—A fall on the floor of a skating rink yesterday was the means by which Miss Ira Ramsey recovered her power of speech which she lost three weeks ago without apparent cause. She had not been sick and her physician was at a loss to account for her strange affliction. Yesterday morning Miss Ramsey went to the skating rink and shortly after going on the floor slipped and fell. The fall was not a heavy one, but the shock was doubtless sufficient to loosen some vocal cord, which had ceased to exercise its function.

Members of half a dozen large business firms admitted in Kansas City yesterday at the trial in the federal court of George H. Crosby, the Burlington traffic manager; George L. Thomas, the New York freight broker, and the latter's clerk, L. B. Taggart, that they had received thousands of dollars in commissions from "unknown sources." All of the firms had hired Thomas to attend to the shipping of goods from the Atlantic seaboard to St. Louis and Kansas City, but none of the witnesses would say that the money came from Thomas. None of the firms kept records of the payments, according to the witnesses. All payments were made in New York. Several officials of the Burlington Railway were also examined and their testimony developed the fact that vouchers for the payment of commissions have disappeared.

Additional evidence of alleged discrimination by the Pennsylvania Railroad in the distribution of cars in the soft coal field was presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday in Philadelphia. John Lloyd, a banker and coal operator of Altoona, who is one of the members of the banking firm of Cassatt & Co., testified that the Columbia Coal Company was forced to sell the Alexandria mine because of the shortage of cars, and George E. Scott, of the Puritan and Crescent Coal Companies, declared that he paid for the use of railroad cars when he failed to secure his allotment and that during a period of 23 days the railroad had furnished him with only one car. He also asserted that Michael Trump, general superintendent of transportation, had told him the company intended to protect the Berwind-White company at all hazards.

State Senator Emery, of Pennsylvania, stated before members of the Interstate Commerce Commission sitting in Cleveland yesterday that the railroads have shut out all shipments of oil to seaboard except that of the Standard Oil Company.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Saturday; light variable winds, mostly southwesterly.

Memorial Day Exercises.

The exercises at the Confederate monument yesterday evening in connection with Memorial Day were, as had been anticipated, exceedingly interesting. The vocal and instrumental music was well rendered, the prayers fervent, the oration animating, interesting and instructive, and the services at the mound in Christ Church yard impressive. The weather was clear and mild—ideal conditions under which to carry out the programme.

Shortly after five o'clock, all preparations for the affair having been made, the procession formed on Prince street in front of Lee Camp Hall, right resting on Alfred street. The band headed the line, followed by the Alexandria Light Infantry and the members of R. E. Lee Camp and citizens.

The procession moved out on Alfred street north to King, up King to Fayette, counter-marched down King to Alfred, up Alfred to Cameron, down Cameron to Columbus, down Columbus to King, down King to Fairfax, down Fairfax to Duke, up Duke to Washington, out Washington to the monument, which had been beautifully decorated.

A dense assemblage blocked the intersection of Prince and Washington streets by the time the procession reached that point. The stand which had been erected on the southwest corner, was filled with gentlemen and ladies, among the latter being Miss Mary Custis Lee.

After music by the band and the singing of "America" by the choir, which was stationed in the portico in front of Dr. McGuire's residence, Dr. Fisher, of the First Baptist Church, offered a suitable prayer, after which Mr. Wm. H. May, Commander of Lee Camp, called the assemblage to order and made a brief but appropriate speech. In concluding he introduced Congressman John Lamb, of Richmond, who was received with much applause.

The speaker, after a few introductory remarks, delivered a speech which bore evidences of having been prepared with great care, which not only enthused his vast audience but proved exceedingly instructive. The audience listened closely as he traced issues which precipitated the civil war, the principles which animated the people of the South and their rights, and repudiated the charge that they had been rebels in any sense of the word, insisting on what was due them under the federal compact. Mr. Lamb exploded many hallucinations concerning the war between the North and the South, among them the impression that slavery was the bone of contention, and proved to the satisfaction of all that the South would have manumitted the slaves in a short time had there been no war. Other countries had abolished slavery, and it was up to the South for it to say whether or not it would perpetuate a system which had been repudiated by the remainder of the civilized world. He asked his hearers if they were aware of the fact that on one occasion an act to free all the negroes in Virginia failed by one vote. Mr. Lamb spoke fervently of all connected with the late Southern Confederacy from the President down to the humblest private, paid due tribute to Robert E. Lee and referred to the fact that wearers of the gray and wearers of the blue were now standing side by side under one flag and in a reunited country. The speaker referred to the woman of the South and their devotion and self-sacrifice during the four year's war. Mr. Lamb at one portion of his speech referred to the fact that during the war southern soldiers did not violate homes when they entered the enemy's country. At this juncture a stranger alongside the stand gave vent to the genuine "rebel yell," an unexpected feature and not on the programme. It was much enjoyed. Mr. Lamb closed his speech with a fitting tribute to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives to their country's cause.

Mr. Lamb took his seat amid much applause.

After the choir had rendered "Lead Kindly Light," the procession reformed and proceeded to Christ Church where the final ceremonies at the mound of deceased Confederates, which had been beautifully decorated, were held. After the choir had sung "Nearer, My God, to Thee," the Light Infantry fired three volleys and taps were sounded and the assemblage dispersed.

River Notes.

Capt. George Davis has resigned as master of the tugboat George W. Pride and has been made mate of the ferry steamer Callahan, with Capt. Will Davis, who has recently been promoted to the command of that steamer.

The dredging of the dock to the north of the ferry slip at the foot of King street has been completed, and the dredging machine has gone to the pier of the Norfolk steamers at the foot of Prince street and is engaged in deepening the water there.

The schooner Eucie, from the Mattapodi river, and the Nettie, from the Rappahannock, with lumber to H. K. Field & Co., have arrived.

The schooner Blanche Hayward, from Garner's Creek with lumber to Smoot & Co., has arrived.

Federation of Labor.

The eleventh annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Labor will assemble in this city on Tuesday, June 5, 1906. At the afternoon session of Wednesday Frank Morrison, secretary-treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, will address the convention. He will probably be preceded or followed by President Gompers. Following is a list of delegates from Alexandria: Trade Council, H. T. Colvin, George Bontz, sr., C. A. Howard, R. M. Prettyman and John T. Harrison; bottle blowers, William T. Arnold; bakers and confectioners, A. D. Lyles; painters, decorators and paper hangers, John L. Proctor; carpenters and joiners, Raymond Cleveland.

Stabbing on a Schooner.

Captain Haskell, of the schooner Luther T. Garretson, from Hillboro, N. B., for this port, reports that while lying at anchor at Tarpaulin cove Seaman Augustus Bergamin stabbed Michael Cardee, a seaman, in the back and face with a knife. Cardee's wounds are dangerous, and the Garretson landed Cardee at the Marine Hospital, Vineyard Haven, Mass., and proceeded to her destination.

Elks' Bazar.

The crowds still keep up to the standard at the Elks' flower carnival, the attendance last night having been very gratifying to the committee. Among the visitors was a delegation from a tribe of Red Men from Idaho, headed by Andrew Johns, a real Indian chief, who is a member of Mineola Tribe, of Washington.

The handsome Hare bicycle, donated by Mr. George Ayres, was drawn by Mr. J. C. Lindsey, of 1009 Gibbon street, who held ticket No. 891.

The punch bowl, which was to be voted to the most popular restaurant keeper in Alexandria, was awarded to Mr. Louis Brill, who received 288 votes. The punch bowl was donated by Mr. M. B. Harlow, through Mrs. L. E. Uhler.

The Elks' charm, another handsome donation which came through Mrs. Uhler and which was given by the Castleberg Company, of Washington, was awarded to Mr. Charles B. Marshall, who received 804 votes.

The drawing for the motor boat will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow night and the drawing for the automobile will be held in the armory Friday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock. Tonight and tomorrow night there will be auction sales of the various articles in the booths. The committee calls attention to the fact that all boat tickets should be deposited in the box before the drawing.

The contest for the helmet and belt, donated by Chief Belt and two of his lieutenants in Washington, was not decided last night, Mr. Arthur Grimes, one of the contestants, having entered a protest that Chief Pettey, of the local fire department, was not eligible. The box in which the ballots were deposited was sealed, and the matter referred to Chief Belt. The latter today said there should be no protest; that the belt and hat were intended for the most popular fireman, and Chief Pettey being declared such, was entitled to the articles. The committee met this morning to consider the matter, when Chief Pettey withdrew from the contest, he having misunderstood the terms, when he entered it. The box will not be opened until Saturday. Chief Pettey has donated the votes he received to the fair.

Personal.

Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, pastor of the M. P. Church, is confined to his home by indisposition.

Mrs. Emma McCuen, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. H. Cocke, 3810 Fifth avenue, Avondale, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Scott Passmoore, on Third avenue. She has made a number of friends during her stay and has been greatly interested in the church work of Avondale, and her friends regret that she will leave soon for Virginia.—[Birmingham, Ala., Ledger.

Mrs. Jane Wick, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Miss Emma Price, on Cameron street.

Pinafore.

There is every indication that the production of Pinafore by Sharps and Flats will be a great success. The principals from Washington, who so generously donated their services to this worthy cause, are well known and appreciated for their former triumphs. Owing to the illness of Miss Edna Scott Smith at the last moment Miss Bernice Moore has kindly consented to fill the part, a difficult one, but judging from the rehearsal last night it could hardly be imagined that the part could be worked up in such a short time and so well.

Property Sales.

Cordelia D. Baldus has sold to Garrett & Monroe a house and lot on the south side of Queen street, between Pitt and St. Asaph.

F. L. Slaymaker has sold to W. A. Moore, jr., a house and lot on the north side of Wilkes street, between Fairfax and Royal.

To Construct Apartment House.

A movement is on foot to construct a modern and colossal apartment house in this city, and plans for the same are now on exhibition. The gentlemen interested in the movement are practical business men, and numbers of Alexandrians have signified their intention of subscribing to the enterprise.

Foot Crushed.

J. H. Lamp, an employee of the Washington-Southern Railway, fell between the cars of a moving freight train at Franconia yesterday afternoon and one of his feet was crushed. The injured man was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where he received surgical aid.

Surrendered Himself.

Raymond Lyles, colored, surrendered himself last night to Officer Roberts, as he had reason to believe he had shot one of a party of men who attempted to hold him up near Four-mile Run and rob him. Lyles says he fired into the party, when the man allowed him to proceed on his way.

Will Probated.

In the Circuit Court for the city in vacation today the will of the late Edward Hughes was admitted to probate. The deceased left all his property, real and personal, to his wife, Mrs. Sarah Hughes, and the latter qualified as executrix. The estate is valued at $8,500.

Funeral

The remains of the late Mr. William Powell Snowden, who died on Wednesday morning at "Oakwood," the residence of his brother-in-law, Rev. S. A. Wallis, on Seminary Hill, were today brought to his old home on south Lee street, where he was born and had lived all his life. This evening at 5 o'clock the funeral will take place from Christ Church. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton, assisted by Revs. Edgar Carpenter and Berryman Green. The pallbearers will be his nephews, Dr. Arthur Snowden and Dr. Edgar Snowden; Col. F. L. Smith, Dr. V. P. Berry and Messrs. W. E. Fendall and H. R. Burke. The interment will be in the family lot in Christ Church cemetery.

Fight in a Box Car.

Several negroes about midnight last night started a row in a boxcar, which is used on the railroad between this city and Four Mile Run as a sleeping place. During the melee which followed, Felonie Jackson, colored, was shot through the cheek, and was brought to this city and taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where it is said his injuries are of a serious nature. Six of the colored men were arrested by Constable Cornell, and taken before Justice Suplee, who fined them $1 each for disorderly conduct.

Southern Railway Surgeons.

The Association of Surgeons of the Southern Railway in session in Charleston, S. C. yesterday selected Washington as the meeting place of the next convention and elected the following officers. President, R. S. Toombs, Greenville, Miss; vice president, M. F. Coomes, Louisville, Ky; second vice-president, B. B. Simms, Talladega, Ala., secretary and treasurer, J. U. Ray, Woodstock, Ala., re-elected. Executive committee, one year, F. R. Gobbel, English, Ind.: five years, W. W. Harper, Selma, Ala. The convention concluded its business last night.

Baseball.

The junior team of the Alexandria Athletic Club defeated the Invincibles in a game of baseball yesterday evening by the score of 9 to 0. A feature of the game was the pitching of Gorman for the Athletics.

The Alexandria Athletic Club will play the strong Takoma Park Team at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening, on the old fair grounds. The line up of Alexandria will be: Fitzpatrick, Bright, Brenner, Gray, Brenner, Bright, Gorman Kraft, Kerr, Wheatley, Benzette and Campbell.

To Be Run by an Alexandrian.

It is learned from an authoritative source that the old Taylor Hotel, on Main street, is to be reopened in the near future, a well-known hotel man of Alexandria, being about to take charge of the place. The Taylor House has been closed for the past several weeks. The Taylor House is one of the most historic old places in Winchester, many men famous in American history having found entertainment and shelter beneath its roof.—[Winchester Star.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first carload of peaches this season passed through this city last night by way of the Southern Railway. They had been consigned to northern markets.

Mrs. Margaret A. Miller, wife of Mr. Frederick W. Miller, formerly of Alexandria, died in Washington yesterday. The interment will be made in this city tomorrow.

The wires of the Southern Bell Telephone Company at Duke and Columbus streets caught on fire this morning. The accident temporarily cut off communication west of Columbus street as far as Seminary Hill, but the trouble will be remedied as soon as possible.

Trapped Rat Survives Fire.

A big gray rat that went through the fire and lived was rescued from a Chinatown basement Tuesday afternoon, and after being watered and fed escaped from its rescuers, who had intended to keep it as long as possible as a curiosity. The rat was found in the basement of a building on the west side of Dupont street, between California and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, by Constables, formerly a deputy in the sheriff's office. It was securely caged in a big wire trap, the wires of which showed the effect of the heat—and so did the rat. The trap had been set in an old fireplace or open space at the bottom of a flue, and the falling walls had closed the opening with a pile of bricks and mortar. There the rat had passed through all the heat and lived for 26 days without food or water. When rescued it was weak and emaciated and the hair was singed from its back, one side and its tail. A pan with water was slipped inside the cage, and the rat went at it with a rush, but at first it could not drink, seeming unable to swallow. It tried several times, and would then take its forepaws and push back on its throat as though trying to push something down. This it repeated at frequent intervals while holding the water in its mouth, and was eventually able to drink its fill. It was then given a bit of cheese at which it nibbled, eating a few bits and then waiting some time before eating again. It was given to a man and woman conducting a refreshment booth at California and Dupont streets, and while on the way home with it on a street car the trap door was lifted, presumably accidently by some one's foot, and the rat escaped. It is probably going yet, hunting for a cool spot. —[San Francisco Chronicle.

Mysterious Murder.

Archibald Wakely, a rising artist, who was an exhibitor at the Royal Academy, in London, was found dead yesterday morning in the house where he had his studio in Monmouth road, Bayswater. The indications are that he was murdered, but the circumstances of the affair are altogether mysterious. Mr. Wakely was under thirty years of age. The house where the studio is located is a three-story building, and is tenanted by architects and artists. Nobody slept there except when occasionally Mr. Wakely used a camp bed in his studio. The theory which is at present held for lack of a more definite one, is that Wakely fell an unintended victim to an attempt to rob the branch of the London and County Bank, which adjoins the house in which his studio was located. Maybe the thief secreted himself on the premises in the daytime or used a duplicate key, prepared to enter the bank by piercing the wall at the end of the passage where the body was found, which separates the two buildings. If this is so, the artist probably heard the thief's movements after undressing and opened the studio door to investigate, surprising the burglar, who secured his own safety by killing the only witness of his intended crime.

Hitched Children to Plow.

A dispatch from Oshkosh, Wis., says: "Complaint has been made against a farmer living about five miles southwest of Neenah, that he has been hitching four of his seven children to a corn plow or cultivator, which he compelled them to drag through a 10-acre garden, while he guided it. Farmers in the vicinity and persons from Oshkosh riding along the highway in carriages and automobiles have witnessed the strange sight. The attention of the authorities was called to the matter after securing confirmation. Dr. Wilkie, of that city, agent of the Fox River Valley Humane Society, went to the farmer and compelled him to send five of the children to school. Five are of school age. The farmer, it is alleged, was rearing them in ignorance. The majority of the children are girls. The eldest is not over 14 years old."

Perfect Sleep

Women Who Are Free From Female Ills Sleep Soundly

Points to the Cause

How many women are troubled with insomnia! How few, alas, habitually sleep the night through and rise refreshed.

If you can't sleep it is because your nerves will not let your body rest. Women's nervous troubles come from female diseases. Their delicate organism is a network of intricate nerves. No woman can suffer from female irregularities without eventually ruining her nervous system. Get rid of female disease and the perfect sleep of childhood will return.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

cures all female troubles and restores nerve equilibrium and brings sound, restful, healthful, natural sleep. Thus does this wonderful remedy operate to bring health to suffering women.

Wakefulness and Nervousness Cured

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Last spring, I lost my appetite, had headaches, and bearing down pains with cramps so that I was in perfect misery. I became wakeful and extremely nervous.

I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am pleased to state that I derived immediate benefit and soon enjoyed permanent relief.

Within eight weeks I was restored to normal health and felt refreshed and strengthened as though I had enjoyed a lengthy vacation.

Since that time I have recommended your Compound to a number of my lady friends suffering with female irregularities, and those who have used it report great benefit from its use. MRS. E. E. VAN DINTER.

965 College Ave., Appleton, Wis.
Vice-President Social Economic Club.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women of female diseases than any other medicine in the world. Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, advises sick women free. She will write you a personal letter if you tell her about your case.
